The Texts

Fidelis servus: The faithful and wise servant places the master (Lord) above his own family.

Süsse Zeiten eilet nicht

Sweet times, do not hurry, rather wait for pleasant hours.

Sweden is now victorious, rediscovering peace, joy, faith, and light.

Sweet times . . .

Ah, del Rebaño for Sanctisimo Sacramento

Refrain: Ah! Of the flock! A wing! I say, supreme shepherd, What a lover, how fine! Take care of your sheep with sweet caresses, with tender care.

Verse: Well, you make a show of the grass of the soul in your endless grace, faith opens up: How it burns in the divine bonfire of that wafer.

Verse: To your whistle the lover pretends to run that to your grace owes great favors: oh, what greatness that your love invites her at that table.

Verse: To your love today appeals my constant faith even if it seems ungrateful like wandering sheep: surrender comes because if you are the bread of life, that life awaits (us). (to refrain)

Ave suavis dilectio motet for communion

Hail, sweet delight, Hail, full of grace. O feeding food, O vast table, To drink of you is to live, to feed on you is to be born.

Hail, living light, Hail, rivers of grace. If I thirst you satisfy
If I am hungry you restore. O mysterious love, Refreshment of sinners.

In you is salvation, in you is life, In you complete Paradise.

From bread, glory, from wine, divinity, From death, life.

O for mortals a death which lives. For the truly faithful, O such a fate.

Pater de coelis from Litany of our Lady of Sorrows

Father of Heaven, God, Son, the world redeemer, God,

Holy Spirit, God, Holy Trinity in one God

have mercy upon us, Holy Mary, pray upon us,

Holy Mother of God, Holy Virgin among the virgins,

Mother of the crucified Christ, Mother of sorrows,

Mother in agony, Mother who sighs,

Mother in afflictions, Mother in abandon,

Mother in desolation, Mother in grief, pray for us.
